TWO MEN CLAIM TO BE GOVERNOR

Courts Will Be Asked to Settle New York Contest.

ASSEMBLY IMPEACHES SULZER

State Executive Will Be Placed on Trial Before the Senate and Judges of the Court of Appeals on Sept. 18. Lieutenant Governor Glynn Says He Will Occupy Executive Chamber.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 14.—With Governor Sulzer impeached by the New York assembly and the date of his trial before the senate and the judges of the court of appeals fixed for Sept. 18, the spectacle was presented of two men claiming to be governor of the state of New York.

As soon as the articles of impeachment adopted by the Democratic majority in the assembly were presented to the senate, Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn announced his intention of occupying the executive chamber.

Friends of Governor Sulzer declared that the governor intended to continue in office and would use every weapon in his power to maintain his position on the ground that the assembly had no constitutional right to consider impeachment at its extraordinary session.

Some asserted that the governor would summon military protection if necessary to prevent the lieutenant governor from occupying the executive chamber.

Herrick Talks for Sulzer.

Judge D. Cady Herrick, who will act as chief counsel for the governor at his trial, said that "talk of resort to force is the merest rot."

"He will meet the charges against him in an orderly and dignified way," said Judge Herrick, "and will do nothing unbecoming the dignity of the state."

"He will engage in no physical struggle to assert his rights to discharge the functions of the office of governor."

The governor himself was silent.

The inaction of Lieutenant Governor Glynn in the matter was in the face of arguments given expression both in the senate and in the assembly that at the moment the articles of impeachment were presented to the senate Governor Sulzer automatically ceased to be the chief executive.

This contention was based on an article in the constitution which says that "in case of impeachment of the governor, the powers and duties of the office shall devolve upon the lieutenant governor."

Governor Stands Impeached.

It was held by the majority leaders that the word "impeachment" corresponded with the word "indictment" in a criminal trial and that therefore in the meaning of the constitution the governor already stood impeached, even though not yet convicted, and was, therefore, not now eligible to hold his office.

These arguments were placed before the lieutenant governor by the Democratic leaders, but nevertheless Governor Sulzer was not molested.

It seemed practically certain that the governor and the lieutenant governor would both resort to legal tests of their respective claims in the courts which, in the history of New York state, have never been called upon to hand down an opinion which would act as a precedent.

Reports that Mrs. Sulzer would give out a statement setting forth the details of her alleged use of Governor Sulzer's campaign checks for stock speculation unknown to the governor did not materialize.

Friends intimated that in view of the fact that Mrs. Sulzer probably will be called as a witness for the defense at the trial what she may have to say will be reserved until she takes the witness stand.

DECLARES LAW IS SUPREME

Lieutenant Governor Will Not Oust Sulzer by Force.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 14.—"I do not intend to enter into any physical contest with Mr. Sulzer over the office of governor. So far as I am concerned there will be no circus or military maneuvers about occupying the executive chamber. The law is supreme."

This is the characteristic statement of Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn, who, it is contended, automatically becomes acting governor of New York by the impeachment of Governor Sulzer.

Mr. Glynn is one of the younger men in state politics, having become prominent through a rapid rise in the councils of the Democratic party after his election as congressman in 1898.

TO NOMINATE MORGENTHAU

Chairman of Wilson's Finance Committee Goes to Turkey.

Washington, Aug. 14.—While the White House declined to authorize any announcement it is known that friends of Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the finance committee of President Wilson's campaign, have brought word that Mr. Morgenthau will accept the ambassadorship to Turkey and his nomination will be sent to the senate very soon.

WILSON FAVORS RURAL CREDITS

President Approves Issuing Currency on Crops.

INSURGENTS ARE JUBILANT

Democrats Who Are Working for Several Amendments to the Currency Bill Feel Greatly Encouraged Over Their Chances of Having Some of Them Adopted.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Democratic "insurgents" on the currency question declared themselves much encouraged after the caucus had spent more than five hours discussing the administration currency bill.

Representatives Henry, chairman of the rules committee, and Ragsdale of South Carolina, who drew the original insurgent amendments, and Representative Eagle of Texas argued for the insurgent amendments and Representatives Bulkeley and Gorbly defended the bill.

With the administration measure under attack in the caucus by those Democrats who seek to write into the measure a provision which would give the farmer currency on his crops President Wilson issued a statement committing himself to rural credit legislation at the next session of congress.

He set forth that the matter could not be adequately handled in the present bill and that a separate and distinct machinery for the handling of rural credits should be established.

This question, raised by the house insurgents, has brought a flood of comment from the agricultural communities to their representatives in congress and many believe the president's statement would have some effect on the consideration of the bill in the caucus.

But after the discussion the insurgents were confident they would procure material amendments looking to the providing of money to farmers.

One amendment suggested which got favorable consideration from both sides would make it clear that banks in the federal system would discount paper based on warehouse receipts for staple commodities and would make this paper redeemable at the regional reserve bank.

The general discussion on the measure in the caucus will continue and it is probable that the bill will be before the caucus for at least the remainder of the week.

CARRY FIGHT TO CONGRESS

National Council of Women Will Ask Right to Vote.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Representatives of 4,000,000 women voters, comprising the National Council of Women Voters, began a three days' convention here to formulate plans for the submission of a resolution to the regular session of congress in December providing for an amendment to the federal Constitution granting universal woman suffrage.

The determination of the women to begin a concerted move on congress was voiced by Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the congressional committees of the National American Woman's Suffrage association.

CAN GIVE FACTS ON NAVY

Daniels to Permit Officers to Produce Testimony.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Navy officers with ideas regarding the service no longer need fear to broach them to congress.

Secretary Daniels, holding that congress has a right to procure information and suggestion from any officer in the navy regarding projected legislation, has addressed letters to sixty-three officers whom the naval committee of the house desires to hear on the subject of naval personnel reorganization, advising them that they can testify in freedom.

Docks Have Labor Surplus

Duluth, Aug. 14.—The manager of the Missabe docks has enough men and of the 400 workers who left their jobs at the instigation of the Industrial Workers of the World, 250 will have to seek employment elsewhere.

At the Allouez docks in Superior loading was going ahead at full capacity.

NEBRASKA GOVERNOR SUE

Morehead Defendant in Quo Warranto Proceedings.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 14.—State Auditor W. B. Howard began a quo warranto suit against Governor Morehead, Attorney General Martin and Insurance Commissioner L. G. Brian in the supreme court asking that they be ousted from control of the state insurance department and that he be reinstated as head.

Auditor Howard declared that the office was forcibly seized recently by the other members of the insurance board when he was absent from the state.

CLASH OVER CURFEW ORDER

New York Judge Threatens to Arrest Police.

New York, Aug. 14.—Mayor Gaynor's curfew order, directing proprietors of liquor selling places to close at 1 o'clock in the morning, brought on a deadlock between the police and the courts.

The action of a "strong arm" squad in ejecting sixty men and women from Thomas Healy's restaurant was described by Police Magistrate Duell as "preposterous."

The magistrate said that he would issue warrants against the police for oppression and assault if the "invasions" were resumed against the restaurant, which has been visited by policemen each morning this week.

SMALL BANKS WANT PART OF CROP FUND

Fear Large Ones Will Speculate With the Money.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Small banks throughout the country are protesting to Secretary McAdoo through their congressmen that unless the government distributes its $50,000,000 or more for crop moving to the small banks directly the big banks will send the money to Wall street for speculation or force them to pay high rates of interest for the money intended for the farmers.

Treasury officials declare they will do all in their power to send the deposits into the small banks, but make it plain that the machinery of the department is not sufficient to make direct deposits to all the small banks that are asking for a share.

Representatives of the large banking centers, the officials declare, have given ample assurances that the purpose of the department will be carried out. They declare emphatically that the fears of the smaller banks are entirely unwarranted.

TROOPS TO STAY AT STRIKE

Failure to Mediate Michigan Trouble to Prolong Employment.

Calumet, Mich., Aug. 14.—General P. L. Abbey, in command of the state troops on strike duty in the copper field, left ostensibly for his home in Kalamazoo on business for several days, but it is said he will go to Lansing to confer with Governor Ferris before returning to Calumet.

The failure of Judge Murphy, the governor's representative here, to bring about a conference between the mine operators and Western Federation of Miners continues the deadlock and the stay of the troops indefinitely.

Western Federation officials announced that President Moyer, now in Denver, was expected here as well as a representative of the American Federation of Labor.

Question of Support.

"I can't live without your daughter!" "Well, can you live without her father?"—Judge.

TRAIN KILLS FARMER.

Galesburg, Ill., Aug. 14.—Charles Miller, a wealthy farmer, was struck by a Burlington train and killed when he turned on the station platform at Prairie City to wave goodbye to his sister.

Noted German Socialist Dead.

Berlin, Aug. 14.—August Bebel, head of the Socialists in Germany, died at Graubunden, where he had gone to take the waters. August Bebel was the best known of the modern Socialist leaders. He joined the German labor movement in 1862 and continued the struggle for the working classes until his death.

PARCEL POST TO BE A MONOPOLY

U. S. Won't Tolerate Competition in Carrying Business.

BURLESON WILL NOT SHIRK

Postmaster General Declares He Will Obey the Mandates of the Law Despite Hostile Criticism—Senator Williams Adds an "F" to the Three Already Recognized in Washington.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Aug. 14.—[Special.]—The government is ultimately to do the parcel carrying business of the United States. That is the meaning of the recent orders of Postmaster General Burleson.

"The government must monopolize any business it undertakes. No concern or concerns can compete with the government," remarked the postmaster general, speaking of the parcel post. "Whether right or wrong, the government has embarked upon the business of carrying parcels. The government never goes backward. It does not retreat its steps. Consequently the parcel post system is to be perfected until it reaches the best the government can give the people."

In connection with the statement, it is well to remember that the government has declared and maintains a monopoly on letter carrying, and there is grave doubt as to whether the statute on that subject cannot be construed so as to include parcels, for it says "packages." But the words of the postmaster general indicate the attitude of the present administration.

He Has the Power.

"Congress established the parcel post," continued Mr. Burleson, "and placed in the postoffice department the authority to make rules and regulations to perfect the system. I am not going to shirk my duty. This administration is going to do things. It is not going to remain in a state of stagnation. It will execute the laws. I have nothing whatever to do with making those laws, but as an executive officer I must execute them. I find the parcel post law on the statute books, giving me certain powers which were evidently intended by congress to be exercised. I am going to do my duty."

Only One Construction.

There is only one way to construe all that was said on this subject. Postmaster General Burleson intends to make the parcel post law do its utmost in the matter of carrying parcels for the people. Carried out in the full significance of what he says about monopoly, it means that the government will monopolize the parcel carrying business up to the limit of the size and weight of parcels to be fixed by the postmaster general.

There have been criticisms of the postmaster general in both houses of congress, but that has not disturbed him to any great extent. He has been a member of congress and knows considerable about such matters. But he knows much more. He knows that an administration officer, backed by the president, can go a mighty long distance, particularly if his action is backed by the people.

Four "F's" in the Tariff.

Senators were wrangling over the rates on automobiles, and it developed that many automobiles were imported because people had a fad for them. "The world is run a great deal by three strong 'f's,'" said Senator Williams, "fads, fancy and fashion. There is another 'f'; there are a lot of fools in this country."

Not a Subject of Criticism.

The Republicans cannot criticize President Wilson because he goes out into Virginia and plays golf frequently. Their own president was given to golf, even more so than Mr. Wilson. Mr. Taft was even more fond of the game than his successor. President Wilson likes it on account of the outdoor exercise it gives him.

On the Anxious Seat.

Democratic leaders of Massachusetts are on the anxious seat, according to the tales they bring to the administration in Washington. For a time it looked like pretty clear sailing for them in the gubernatorial election this fall, but now they fear that the Progressives and Republicans may unite, in which event it would be a contest in all the world implies. Many of the big political leaders have made pilgrimages to Washington to talk things over with the administration officials.

The Bryan Influence.

The Bryan influence is supposed to be the cause of the support which has been extended to Blair Lee for the senate in Maryland. Blair Lee was at one time the choice of Bryan for the Democratic nomination for president. Had Lee been chosen governor of Maryland and he failed of the nomination only by one vote—he might have been quite a formidable competitor at Baltimore a year ago. Now he has administration backing for the senate.

"Taking Their Medicine."

"For good party organization men commend me to Senators Myers and Walsh of Montana," said a leading Democrat. "Talk about taking your medicine! Why, they walked right up and took their free wool and free sugar in a manner to show the greatest possible nerve."

Helping Others.

To be willing to take trouble is the great condition of being useful to others.—Bishop Thorold.

GOVERNOR FOSS.
Politicians Believe He Will Again Join Republican Party.

MAY BOLT THE DEMOCRATS

Governor Foss Likely to Return to Republican Party.

Boston, Aug. 14.—Governor Eugene M. Foss, one of the candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination last year, made public a statement which was generally interpreted by political leaders to mean that he would seek the Republican nomination for governor at next month's primaries.

Should the governor return to the Republican ranks, which he left to be elected as a Democratic congressman in a strong Republican district and subsequently to be elected governor for three successive terms on a Democratic ticket, it would mean a three-cornered contest at the primaries.

Colonel Everett O. Benton, last year's defeated Republican standard bearer, and Congressman Augustus P. Gardner have already announced that they would seek the Republican nomination.

RIOTS AGAIN TAKE PLACE AT MINOT

Dozens of Men Injured and Number of Arrests.

Minot, N. D., Aug. 14.—Threats of the Industrial Workers of the World to renew the fight to hold street meetings in Minot were carried out and resulted in two riots, the clubbing and injury of dozens of men, the arrest of twenty-seven men members of the I. W. W. and a free for all fight in the jail, which was quelled when a fire hose was turned upon more than one hundred rioting prisoners.

Deputies armed with rifles are patrolling the downtown district and others were posted upon the roofs of buildings in advantageous places to open fire on rioters.

The situation appeared almost beyond the control of the authorities and it is possible that a call for militia would be sent to the governor. The jail has become so crowded that a bull pen was hastily constructed in the rear.

The climax of the trouble followed the return of the fifty-nine Industrial Workers who were driven from the city.

INCOME TAX RETURNS GROW

Credited to Wisconsin's Prosperity by Commission Head.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 14.—The income tax returns will show decided increases this year, according to Professor T. S. Adams of the state tax commission. He says that both the amounts collected from individuals and from corporations will be in excess of the minimum amounts collected last year. In spite of the change in corporation rate of taxation made by the last session of the legislature the returns from this source will be about the same.

WUSING FORTS SURRENDER

Chinese Rebels Allowed to Return to Their Homes.

Shanghai, Aug. 14.—The Wusing forts, which for some time had been in the hands of the rebels, surrendered to the government troops.

Negotiations for the surrender were made through Dr. Cox of the Red Cross.

Three Italian Soldiers Killed.

Rome, Aug. 14.—Three soldiers were killed and several seriously wounded by the explosion of a cannon in one of the forts defending the city.

THREE DIE IN AUTO WRECK

One of Victims President of Young People's League.

Westfield, N. Y., Aug. 14.—Three persons were killed and two injured when a large touring car got beyond control on a steep hill near here.

Rev. Peter C. Bommer of Buffalo, Mrs. Bommer and Miss Alice Paegels of Rochester lost their lives.

Miss Louise Bommer and Mary Whoczen, Mrs. Bommer's maid, received serious injuries.

Mr. Bommer was president of the Young People's League of the German Evangelical Synod of North America.

MAY DIE FROM BURNS.

Virginia, Minn., Aug. 14.—Mary Wolasky, a maid employed in the home of David Shapiro here, was burned, probably mortally by the explosion of some alcohol while she was lighting a kitchen stove. All her clothing and hair were burned off.

Seven Missing Members of Launch Party Meet Death.

Duluth, Aug. 14.—The bodies of the seven members of the launch party drowned in St. Louis bay when a flimsy toy used for seats on the launch Dauplaise gave way and the fourteen persons fell overboard were recovered.

Negligence and carelessness are charged by H. C. Bellanger in charge of the launch Nemad, as being the causes for the accident. Mr. Bellanger said that the top of the boat had been flimsily fixed and that only small bolts held the affair in place.

President May Dismiss Ambassador to Mexico

SLUR ON BRITISH DIPLOMACY

Henry Lane Wilson Issues Statement Attacking British Foreign Office Explanation That Recognition of Huerta Government Took Place After Wilson Made Congratulatory Speech.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The United States government has informally sounded the powers and learned that foreign governments generally will do nothing to embarrass the peace policy of President Wilson toward Mexico and inclined to support it.

Henry Lane Wilson, whose resignation as ambassador to Mexico recently was accepted to take effect Oct. 14, issued a statement attacking the reported statement of the British foreign office that recognition of the Huerta government had been extended after he had made "a congratulatory speech" to the provisional president.

President Wilson was so incensed because of the ambassador's statement, its tone and contents, that he requested Secretary Bryan to ascertain through the British embassy here whether the utterance of the British foreign office as reported was correct and the dismissal of Ambassador Wilson by summary acceptance of his resignation to take effect immediately was under consideration by the administration.

Dispatches from John Lind, personal representative in Mexico of President Wilson, indicated that he was in personal touch with Frederico Gamboa, Mexican minister of foreign affairs, and was preparing to submit the representations of the United States on the restoration of peace in Mexico.

Views of Foreign Nations.

It was learned that many of the foreign governments feel the Mexican problem to be peculiarly within the province of American diplomacy and though they may take so affirmative action, they will not interfere with the peace program for a constitutionally established government.

The American government has learned some of these things only by indirectness, but within the last two days the developments in Japan and Great Britain—two nations which had hitherto recognized the Huerta government—indicating to officials here that these governments were suspending judgment, has been taken as concrete evidence of a favorable attitude by foreign governments to the peace policy.

Ambassador Wilson's views are known at the British foreign office to be at variance with those of the Washington administration, but President Wilson is said to be disposed not to permit any attacks on the British government from an official of the United States, which Ambassador Wilson would continue to be until Oct. 14.

Administration officials took particular exception to the ambassador's remark, "if this statement really emanated from the British foreign office it is at variance with its traditions and the character which it has maintained before the world for two centuries."

NO STRIKE OF MACHINISTS

Northern Pacific and Great Northern Settle With Men.

St. Paul, Aug. 14.—There will be no strike of the machinists of the Western railroads. At the final conference between representatives of the machinists and officials of the railroads satisfactory arrangements were reached and part of the demands of the machinists were acceded to by the roads, which consist of 1 cent increase an hour in pay and various modifications of rules regulating the method of work.

Although the concessions granted affect only the Great Northern and Northern Pacific, yet it probably will be only a matter of time when the demands on the other Western roads for these same things will be granted. The Soo, Omaha and Minneapolis and St. Louis machinists are taking a strike vote on the same matters. In all 1,500 machinists and 700 helpers are involved.

Secretary Daniels, holding that congress has a right to procure information and suggestion from any officer in the navy regarding projected legislation, has addressed letters to sixty-three officers whom the naval committee of the house desires to hear on the subject of naval personnel reorganization, advising them that they can testify in freedom.

Docks Have Labor Surplus.

Duluth, Aug. 14.—The manager of the Missabe docks has enough men and of the 400 workers who left their jobs at the instigation of the Industrial Workers of the World, 250 will have to seek employment elsewhere. At the Allouez docks in Superior loading was going ahead at full capacity.

NEBRASKA GOVERNOR SUE

Morehead Defendant in Quo Warranto Proceedings.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 14.—State Auditor W. B. Howard began a quo warranto suit against Governor Morehead, Attorney General Martin and Insurance Commissioner L. G. Brian in the supreme court asking that they be ousted from control of the state insurance department and that he be reinstated as head.

Auditor Howard declared that the office was forcibly seized recently by the other members of the insurance board when he was absent from the state.

CLASH OVER CURFEW ORDER

New York Judge Threatens to Arrest Police.

New York, Aug. 14.—Mayor Gaynor's curfew order, directing proprietors of liquor selling places to close at 1 o'clock in the morning, brought on a deadlock between the police and the courts.

The action of a "strong arm" squad in ejecting sixty men and women diners from Thomas Healy's restaurant was described by Police Magistrate Deuel as "preposterous."

The magistrate said that he would issue warrants against the police for oppression and assault if the "invasions" were resumed against the restaurant, which has been visited by policemen each morning this week.

SMALL BANKS WANT PART OF CROP FUND

Fear Large Ones Will Speculate With the Money.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Small banks throughout the country are protesting to Secretary McAdoo through their congressmen that unless the government distributes its $50,000,000 or more for crop moving to the small banks directly the big banks will send the money to Wall street for speculation or force them to pay high rates of interest for the money intended for the farmers.

Treasury officials declare they will do all in their power to send the deposits into the small banks, but make it plain that the machinery of the department is not sufficient to make direct deposits to all the small banks that are asking for a share. Representatives of the large banking centers, the officials declare, have given ample assurances that the purpose of the department will be carried out. They declare emphatically that the fears of the smaller banks are entirely unwarranted.

TROOPS TO STAY AT STRIKE

Failure to Mediate Michigan Trouble to Prolong Employment.

Calumet, Mich., Aug. 14.—General P. L. Abbey, in command of the state troops on strike duty in the copper field, left ostensibly for his home in Kalamazoo on business for several days, but it is said he will go to Lansing to confer with Governor Ferris before returning to Calumet.

The failure of Judge Murphy, the governor's representative here, to bring about a conference between the mine operators and Western Federation of Miners continues the deadlock and the stay of the troops indefinitely. Western Federation officials announced that President Moyer, now in Denver, was expected here as well as a representative of the American Federation of Labor.

Noted German Socialist Dead.

Berlin, Aug. 14.—August Bebel, head of the Socialists in Germany, died at Graubunden, where he had gone to take the waters. August Bebel was the best known of the modern Socialist leaders. He joined the German labor movement in 1862 and continued the struggle for the working classes until his death.

PARCEL POST TO BE A MONOPOLY

U. S. Won't Tolerate Competition in Carrying Business.

BURLESON WILL NOT SHIRK

Postmaster General Declares He Will Obey the Mandates of the Law Despite Hostile Criticism—Senator Williams Adds an "F" to the Three Already Recognized in Washington.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Aug. 14.—[Special].—The government is ultimately to do the parcel carrying business of the United States. That is the meaning of the recent orders of Postmaster General Burleson.

"The government must monopolize any business it undertakes. No concern or concerns can compete with the government," remarked the postmaster general, speaking of the parcel post. "Whether right or wrong, the government has embarked upon the business of carrying parcels. The government never goes backward. It does not retrace its steps. Consequently the parcel post system is to be perfected until it reaches the best the government can give the people."

In connection with the statement, it is well to remember that the government has declared and maintains a monopoly on letter carrying, and there is grave doubt as to whether the statute on that subject cannot be construed so as to include parcels, for it says "packets." But the words of the postmaster general indicate the attitude of the present administration.

He Has the Power.

"Congress established the parcel post," continued Mr. Burleson, "and placed in the postoffice department the authority to make rules and regulations to perfect the system. I am not going to shirk my duty. This administration is going to do things. It is not going to remain in a state of stagnation. It will execute the laws. I have nothing whatever to do with making those laws, but as an executive officer I must execute them. I find the parcel post law on the statute books, giving me certain powers which were evidently intended by congress to be exercised. I am going to do my duty."

Only One Construction.

There is only one way to construe all that was said on this subject. Postmaster General Burleson intends to make the parcel post law do its utmost in the matter of carrying parcels for the people. Carried out in the full significance of what he says about monopoly, it means that the government will monopolize the parcel carrying business up to the limit of the size and weight of parcels to be fixed by the postmaster general.

There have been criticisms of the postmaster general in both houses of congress, but that has not disturbed him to any great extent. He has been a member of congress and knows considerable about such matters. But he knows much more. He knows that an administration officer, backed by the president, can go a mighty long distance, particularly if his action is backed by the people.

Four 'F's' in the Tariff.

Senators were wrangling over the rates on automobiles, and it developed that many automobiles were imported because people had a fad for them. "The world is run a great deal by three strong 'f's'," said Senator Williams, "fads, fancy and fashion. There is another 'f'; there are a lot of fools in this country."

Not a Subject of Criticism.

The Republicans cannot criticize President Wilson because he goes out into Virginia and plays golf frequently. Their own president was given to golf, even more so than Mr. Wilson. Mr. Taft was even more fond of the game than his successor. President Wilson likes it on account of the outdoor exercise it gives him.

On the Anxious Seat.

Democratic leaders of Massachusetts are on the anxious seat, according to the tales they bring to the administration in Washington. For a time it looked like pretty clear sailing for them in the gubernatorial election this fall, but now they fear that the Progressives and Republicans may unite, in which event it would be a contest in all the word implies. Many of the big political leaders have made pilgrimages to Washington to talk things over with the administration officials.

The Bryan Influence.

The Bryan influence is supposed to be the cause of the support which has been extended to Blair Lee for the senate in Maryland. Blair Lee was at one time the choice of Bryan for the Democratic nomination for president. Had Lee been chosen governor of Maryland—and he failed of the nomination only by one vote—he might have been quite a formidable competitor at Baltimore a year ago. Now he has administration backing for the senate.

"Taking Their Medicine."

"For good party organization men commend me to Senators Myers and Walsh of Montana," said a leading Democrat. "Talk about taking your medicine! Why, they walked right up and took their free wool and free sugar in a manner to show the greatest possible nerve."

Helping Others.

GOVERNOR FOSS.

Politicians Believe He Will Again Join Republican Party.

MAY BOLT THE DEMOCRATS

Governor Foss Likely to Return to Republican Party.

Boston, Aug. 14.—Governor Eugene N. Foss, one of the candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination last year, made public a statement which was generally interpreted by political leaders to mean that he would seek the Republican nomination for governor at next month's primaries.

Should the governor return to the Republican ranks, which he left to be elected as a Democratic congressman in a strong Republican district and subsequently to be elected governor for three successive terms on a Democratic ticket, it would mean a three-cornered contest at the primaries.

Colonel Everett O. Benton, last year's defeated Republican standard bearer, and Congressman Augustus P. Gardner have already announced that they would seek the Republican nomination.

RIOTS AGAIN TAKE PLACE AT MINOT

Dozens of Men Injured and Number of Arrests.

Minot, N. D., Aug. 14.—Threats of the Industrial Workers of the World to renew the fight to hold street meetings in Minot were carried out and resulted in two riots, the clubbing and injury of dozens of men, the arrest of twenty-seven more members of the I. W. W. and a free for all fight in the jail, which was quelled when a fire hose was turned upon more than one hundred rioting prisoners.

Deputies armed with rifles are patrolling the downtown district and others were posted upon the roofs of buildings in advantageous places to open fire on rioters.

The situation appeared almost beyond the control of the authorities and it is possible that a call for militia would be sent to the governor.

The jail has become so crowded that a bull pen was hastily constructed in the rear.

The climax of the trouble followed the return of the fifty-nine Industrial Workers who were driven from the city.

INCOME TAX RETURNS GROW

Credited to Wisconsin's Prosperity by Commission Head.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 14.—The income tax returns will show decided increases this year, according to Professor T. S. Adams of the state tax commission. He says that both the amounts collected from individuals and from corporations will be in excess of the minimum amounts collected last year. In spite of the change in corporation rate of taxation made by the last session of the legislature the returns from this source will be about the same.

Professor Adams attributes the increases to the prosperity of the state last year. As the result of the work done by income tax assessors, he says, Wisconsin has the best assessment of personal and real estate property of any state in the Union.

WUSING FORTS SURRENDER

Chinese Rebels Allowed to Return to Their Homes.

Shanghai, Aug. 14.—The Wusing forts, which for some time had been in the hands of the rebels, surrendered to the government troops.

Negotiations for the surrender were made through Dr. Cox of the Red Cross.

The commander of the forts asked for guarantees for safety of the rebel officers and the payment of money to enable the troops to return to their homes. The terms were accepted.

Miss Louise Bommer and Mary Whoczen, Mrs. Bommer's maid, received serious injuries.

Seven Missing Members of Launch Party Meet Death.

Duluth, Aug. 14.—The bodies of the seven members of the launch party drowned in St. Louis bay when a flimsy toy used for seats on the launch Dauplaise gave way and the fourteen persons fell overboard were recovered.

Negligence and carelessness are charged by H. C. Bellanger in charge of the launch Nemadi, as being the causes for the accident. Mr. Bellanger said that the top of the boat had been flimsily fixed and that only small bolts held the affair in place.

President May Dismiss Ambassador to Mexico.

SLUR ON BRITISH DIPLOMACY

Henry Lane Wilson Issues Statement Attacking British Foreign Office Explanation That Recognition of Huerta Government Took Place After Wilson Made Congratulatory Speech.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The United States government has informally sounded the powers and learned that foreign governments generally will do nothing to embarrass the peace policy of President Wilson toward Mexico and inclined to support it.

Henry Lane Wilson, whose resignation as ambassador to Mexico recently was accepted to take effect Oct. 14, issued a statement attacking the reported statement of the British foreign office that recognition of the Huerta government had been extended after he had made "a congratulatory speech" to the provisional president.

President Wilson was so incensed because of the ambassador's statement, its tone and contents, that he requested Secretary Bryan to ascertain through the British embassy here whether the utterance of the British foreign office as reported was correct and the dismissal of Ambassador Wilson by summary acceptance of his resignation to take effect immediately was under consideration by the administration.

Dispatches from John Lind, personal representative in Mexico of President Wilson, indicated that he was in personal touch with Frederico Gamboa, Mexican minister of foreign affairs, and was preparing to submit the representations of the United States on the restoration of peace in Mexico.

Views of Foreign Nations.

It was learned that many of the foreign governments feel the Mexican problem to be peculiarly within the province of American diplomacy and though they may take so affirmative action, they will not interfere with the peace program for a constitutionally established government.

The American government has learned some of these things only by indirectness, but within the last two days the developments in Japan and Great Britain—two nations which had hitherto recognized the Huerta government—indicating to officials here that these governments were suspending judgment, has been taken as concrete evidence of a favorable attitude by foreign governments to the peace policy.

Ambassador Wilson's views are known at the British foreign office to be at variance with those of the Washington administration, but President Wilson is said to be disposed not to permit any attacks on the British government from an official of the United States, which Ambassador Wilson would continue to be until Oct. 14.

Administration officials took particular exception to the ambassador's remark, "if this statement really emanated from the British foreign office it is at variance with its traditions and the character which it has maintained before the world for two centuries."

After an intelligent old gentleman at the age of seventy-six dropped dead in his home, his son found over TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS in PAPER MONEY over the old clock which stood on the wooden mantle, surrounding an open crackling fire. Both the old gentleman's MONEY and LIFE were in danger; for BURG-LARS have a way of LEARNING where money is hidden, and FIRE at any time might have burned the house.

After an intelligent old gentleman at the age of seventy-six dropped dead in his home, his son found over TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS in PAPER MONEY over the old clock which stood on the wooden mantle, surrounding an open crackling fire. Not even HIS OWN WIFE knew that much money was there. The old gentleman was simply CARELESS. Both the old gentleman's MONEY and LIFE were in danger; for BURG-LARS have a way of LEARNING where money is hidden, and FIRE at any time might have burned the house.

ELECTROCUTED AND STILL ALIVE

William Larson Receives 2,300 Volts
for Two Minutes at Crosby Wednesday Afternoon

HE DESCRIBES HIS SENSATIONS
Most Remarkable Case in Country—
Other Crosby Business and Social News

Crosby, Minn., August 13.—To have 2,300 volts of electricity coursing through his body while perched on the crossbars of an electric light pole, to hang limp and seemingly lifeless from his station and then to have a comrade remove his arm from the death dealing wire and to come to life again is the experience of William Larson, a lineman, in the employ of the Cuyuna Range Power company. Larson had told a fellow employe to cut out the plugs on the high tension wire while he made repairs. In some manner this was forgotten and when Larson touched the wire he got the full shock of the current. Harvey Rice ascended the pole and removed his arm from the wire, receiving a shock as he did so. The current was shut off. To all appearances Larson was dead. His body swayed from the cross arm, his arms and legs hung limp and his face was black. His body gave convulsive twitches, saliva ran from his mouth and suddenly he yelled as the air came to his lungs. He turned about and scolded the man who had neglected his orders. He descended the ladder which the fire company had raised. He said he felt dizzy and it seemed to him he had been chloroformed. He wanted to vomit. His wrist and leg were burned in their contact with the wire. Otherwise he felt no pain. His experience is testimony enough that death by electrocution is absolutely painless. The current is believed to have run through his body for two minutes. After resting a few minutes Larson returned to his work and begged the boys not to tell his wife about it. Arthur Lovdahl has gone to Boston, Mass., to attend the Rexall convention. Capt. Anderson is building a new residence on the corner of Second street and Second avenue west. A worker on the roof of the new Spaulding hotel addition was overcome by the heat Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kruse and family have returned from a three weeks' trip on the Great Lakes. Mrs. Lovdahl and Mrs. Folio give a party Friday evening to a number of their friends. Will S. Pitt has sold his building in which he has his real estate office to a number of Greeks of International Falls and Duluth who will put in an up to date candy kitchen. Mr. Pitt will remove across the street to his other building and will take the rooms to be vacated by Lawyer A. W. Uhl.

The Briggs theatre has been remodeled, the floor has been raised and various other improvements have been made.

J. F. Glynn, of Superior, was a Crosby business visitor Wednesday. Mike McNamara, of Superior, has been at Crosby attending to business matters.

R. R. Hudson has secured the contract for the plumbing and heating in the thirty-room Spaulding hotel addition.

The Plutos, the colored professional team which wiped the Golden Rules of Superior off the earth and batted all their balls out of the park, play an evening game at Crosby.

MACHINISTS WANT INCREASE IN WAGES

St. Paul, Minn., August 14.—A committee representing the machinists of the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific roads has placed demands for higher wages and shorter hours before officials of the two roads. The vote of the 1,180 machinists favors a strike to enforce their demands. Another conference will soon be held. The demands of telegraph operators of the Northern Pacific for increased wages and better working conditions has been presented to officials of the Northern Pacific by a committee.

RANGE TOWNS FOR LINE

Messrs. Reid and Ferrier Spending
Week on the Range, Covering
Much Ground

George Reid, president, and Joseph Ferrier, vice president and treasurer of the Minnesota Central Railway company, arrived in Brainerd on the Northern Pacific flyer on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Ferrier left Thursday afternoon for Duluth, Mr. Reid remaining in Brainerd.

Messrs. Reid and Ferrier have spent the week on the Cuyuna iron range, visiting all of the principal towns and mining properties, and getting acquainted with the leading citizens. They found no opposition in any of the towns to the electric line. All of them stand ready to give the necessary permits for the line as soon as they are asked for.

BARBERS EXAMINING BOARD

Inspects Brainerd Shops and Finds
Conditions of the Best—Relate
Their Experiences

The Minnesota State Examining Board of Barbers passed through Brainerd to Staples Wednesday. In the party were President Emil Sabel of Duluth, treasurer William Hamlin of Minneapolis and secretary Gustav H. Becker of St. Paul. An examination for barbers was conducted at Bemidji and in addition the shops were inspected. Two arrests were made, one man found working without a license being fined $5 in court and another barber was fined a like amount for employing an unlicensed barber.

The Brainerd shops were inspected and everything was found in good shape. Mr. Becker remarked that Brainerd barbers were among the most prosperous he had seen.

At the examination conducted in Duluth many old timers show up and have their annual haircut free, the candidates at the examinations operating on the subjects to show their skill with razors and shears.

The Staples examination will be attended by men from Little Falls, St. Cloud, Brainerd and other points and it is expected that thirty applicants for barber's licenses will be present.

NORTHWESTERN PLAINSMEN

Many Signatures Being Received to the Incorporation Papers of the New Order

The Modern Woodmen of Brainerd have spent over five hundred dollars in the fight to organize the new state order. We understand all arrangements are made and the order of Northwestern Plainsmen will be a fact as soon as the incorporation papers are signed, but it is up to the members to sign the papers at once or there will be no new association.

The papers have to be signed before a notary public and the Brainerd camp has provided for this by having Amos Lukens at the Lukens grocery store on Laurel street appointed a notary so you can sign up by calling at the store at any time.

The assistant clerk, L. T. Noggle, also has a commission so that the railroad employees can see him at the shops and sign up without any trouble or delay.

A. L. Hoffman has been circulating the petitions in the down town districts so that nearly all the business men have signed up, and Mr. Hoffman will be at his office with the Hitch Fuel Co., corner 6th and Laurel Friday evening to accept signatures.

It would seem as though ample provision had been made by the committee in charge so that if any member loses the chance to better his insurance it will be his own fault.

Again We Say Suits Are You Not Interested

It will be a suit season. That is, the styles and weights make them most desirable even if dame Fashion had not endorsed them so heartily. But, the best in the suits cannot be told about; they must be seen and we await the pleasure of showing you.

It is wise to select early—take the choice of the entire lot—this choice costs you nothing extra.

PLEADS FOR A SQUARE DEAL

Editor Daily Dispatch:

I noticed in the Dispatch a few days ago a communication signed by a number of farmers in regard to game protection and trespassing on farm lands.

I think they have struck the keynote to the situation and would be very much pleased to see the name of every farmer in Crow Wing county signed to the same agreement. If this was done and enforced there would soon be a better understanding between the farmers and the city sportsmen. Most of the farmers do not take kindly to the city sportsmen and it is not to be wondered at for so many of the hunting parties show such utter disregard to others' rights, mostly because of their hunting enthusiasm.

Let a covey of chickens flush from the road or elsewhere and alight in the middle of a field of standing grain and without thinking of the loss to the farmer, away they go with their dogs into the grain destroying a great deal of it. Such treatment on the part of one thoughtless party of hunters puts all city sportsmen in disrepute with the farmers and with very good reason.

Another reason the farmer has for getting sore is the fact that the city hunter will cover his fields and likely kill a goodly number of birds and accept of his hospitality in the way of stabling their teams and other things and then dust away without asking, "Will you have a mess of YOUR OWN chickens which you were kind enough to allow us to kill?"

Just to illustrate. Not many years ago a party of hunters from this city went to a certain farm house and asked to put up their team and were met with the response, "Certainly, help yourself," which they did, using his hay and at noon his oats to feed their team and were also given a quantity of milk, cream and melons which this notably generous farmer helped them to. Luck was with them and they killed over 60 birds.

When the time came to go home, did they thank this man for his hospitality and give him a mess of the birds they had killed. No, but when they got started one of them called the farmer to the wagon and said: "When you thresh your pumpkins let us know and we will help you."

Use the farmer right, boys, and he will use you right. When you want to hunt on his land ask his permission and use judgment hunting his fields. Do not trample on his crops and if you are lucky to kill a mess of birds, don't forget that the farmer may like a mess too.

Respectfully,

I. U. WHITE.

Thursday

Thursday evening a cyclone passed through here, mowing a path half a mile wide through the heavy timber, between the lake and Curran's homestead. When it passed over Curran's house it was too high to do any damage but came down just after it passed the house and tore up trees by the roots and broke them off about 20 feet from the ground.

Mrs. Wicklund and Ernest Wicklund called at Woodson's and Keeler's Friday.

Mrs. Curran and sister of Osakis, called at Keeler's Friday.

ELECTROCUTED AND STILL ALIVE

William Larson Receives 2,300 Volts
for Two Minutes at Crosby Wednesday Afternoon

HE DESCRIBES HIS SENSATIONS

Most Remarkable Case in Country—
Other Crosby Business and Social News

Crosby, Minn., August 13.—To have 2,300 volts of electricity coursing through his body while perched on the crossbars of an electric light pole, to hang limp and seemingly lifeless from his station and then to have a comrade remove his arm from the death dealing wire and to come to life again is the experience of William Larson, a lineman, in the employ of the Cuyuna Range Power company. Larson had told a fellow employee to cut out the plugs on the high tension wire while he made repairs. In some manner this was forgotten and when Larson touched the wire he got the full shock of the current. Harvey Rice ascended the pole and removed his arm from the wire, receiving a shock as he did so. The current was shut off. To all appearances Larson was dead. His body swayed from the cross arm, his arms and legs hung limp and his face was black. His body gave convulsive twitches, saliva ran from his mouth and suddenly he yelled as the air came to his lungs. He turned about and scolded the man who had neglected his orders. He descended the ladder which the fire company had raised. He said he felt dizzy and it seemed to him he had been chloroformed. He wanted to vomit. His wrist and leg were burned in their contact with the wire. Otherwise he felt no pain. His experience is testimony enough that death by electrocution is absolutely painless. The current is believed to have run through his body for two minutes. After resting a few minutes Larson returned to his work and begged the boys not to tell his wife about it.

RANGE TOWNS FOR LINE

Messrs. Reid and Ferrier Spending
Week on the Range, Covering
Much Ground

George Reid, president, and Joseph Ferrier, vice president and treasurer of the Minnesota Central Railway company, arrived in Brainerd on the Northern Pacific flyer on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Ferrier left Thursday afternoon for Duluth, Mr. Reid remaining in Brainerd.

Messrs. Reid and Ferrier have spent the week on the Cuyuna iron range, visiting all of the principal towns and mining properties, and getting acquainted with the leading citizens. They found no opposition in any of the towns to the electric line. All of them stand ready to give the necessary permits for the line as soon as they are asked for.

BARBERS EXAMINING BOARD

Inspects Brainerd Shops and Finds
Conditions of the Best—Relate
Their Experiences

The Minnesota State Examining Board of Barbers passed through Brainerd to Staples Wednesday. In the party were President Emil Sabel of Duluth, treasurer William Hamblin of Minneapolis and secretary Gustav H. Becker of St. Paul. An examination for barbers was conducted at Bemidji and in addition the shops were inspected. Two arrests were made, one man found working without a license being fined $5 in court and another barber was fined a like amount for employing an unlicensed barber.

The Brainerd shops were inspected and everything was found in good shape. Mr. Becker remarked that Brainerd barbers were among the most prosperous he had seen.

At the examination conducted in Duluth many old timers show up and have their annual haircut free, the candidates at the examinations operating on the subjects to show their skill with razors and shears.

The Staples examination will be attended by men from Little Falls, St. Cloud, Brainerd and other points and it is expected that thirty applicants for barber's licenses will be present.

NORTHWESTERN PLAINSMEN

Many Signatures Being Received to
the Incorporation Papers of the New Order

The Modern Woodmen of Brainerd have spent over five hundred dollars in the fight to organize the new state order. We understand all arrangements are made and the order of Northwestern Plainsmen will be a fact as soon as the incorporation papers are signed, but it is up to the members to sign the papers at once or there will be no new association.

The papers have to be signed before a notary public and the Brainerd camp has provided for this by having Amos Lukens at the Lukens grocery store on Laurel street appointed a notary so you can sign up by calling at the store at any time.

The assistant clerk, L. T. Noggie, also has a commission so that the railroad employees can see him at the shops and sign up without any trouble or delay.

A. L. Hoffman has been circulating the petitions in the down town districts so that nearly all the business men have signed up, and Mr. Hoffman will be at his office with the Hitch Fuel Co., corner 6th and Laurel Friday evening to accept signatures.

It would seem as though ample provision had been made by the committee in charge so that if any member loses the chance to better his insurance it will be his own fault.

PLEADS FOR A SQUARE DEAL

Editor Daily Dispatch:

I noticed in the Dispatch a few days ago a communication signed by a number of farmers in regard to game protection and trespassing on farm lands.

I think they have struck the keynote to the situation and would be very much pleased to see the name of every farmer in Crow Wing county signed to the same agreement. If this was done and enforced there would soon be a better understanding between the farmers and the city sportsmen. Most of the farmers do not take kindly to the city sportsmen and it is not to be wondered at for so many of the hunting parties show such utter disregard to others' rights, mostly because of their hunting enthusiasm.

Let a covey of chickens flush from the road or elsewhere and alight in the middle of a field of standing grain and without thinking of the loss to the farmer, away they go with their dogs into the grain destroying a great deal of it. Such treatment on the part of one thoughtless party of hunters puts all city sportsmen in disrepute with the farmers and with very good reason.

Another reason the farmer has for getting sore is the fact that the city hunter will cover his fields and likely kill a goodly number of birds and accept of his hospitality in the way of stabling their teams and other things and then dust away without asking, "Will you have a mess of YOUR OWN chickens which you were kind enough to allow us to kill?"

Just to illustrate. Not many years ago a party of hunters from this city went to a certain farm house and asked to put up their team and were met with the response, "Certainly, help yourself," which they did, using his hay and at noon his oats to feed their team and were also given a quantity of milk, cream and melons which this notably generous farmer helped them to. Luck was with them and they killed over 60 birds.

When the time came to go home, did they thank this man for his hospitality and give him a mess of the birds they had killed. No, but when they got started one of them called the farmer to the wagon and said: "When you thresh your pumpkins let us know and we will help you."

Use the farmer right, boys, and he will use you right. When you want to hunt on his land ask his permission and use judgment hunting his fields. Do not trample on his crops and if you are lucky to kill a mess of birds, don't forget that the farmer may like a mess too.

Respectfully,

I. U. WHITE,
Brainerd, Minn., Aug. 14, 1913.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. "Take Hall's Catarrh Pills for constipation."
